Kissapp

Emoji;) Keyboard is the best option for those looking to express their feelings or messages through images. The app has thousands of icons that can be edited and modified. The keyboard works both for WhatsApp and in social networks or text messages. It's free to download

The ways we communicate have been changing over time and through changes in technology. From the old letter exchanges, to the telephone or to the digitization reflected in emails, text messages and WhatsApp. Our priority and most important activity as humans is to communicate and we always look for the best way to do it.

Today that communication is in the best moment thanks to the incredible advancement of computer technology, mobile phones and free applications which make it easy for us to express all our feelings in an easy and accessible way.

One of the ways that has been added in recent years to express feelings, words, moments or states of mind are Emoji. The word comes from a term in the Japanese language and in Spanish they are also known as emoticons. They are, nothing more and nothing less, than the cute icons or small drawings that we have on the keyboards of our mobile devices.

If you are looking to download emojis for free to be able to express everything you think in the most fun way, we are going to tell you about one of the best free app available for iOS. We refer to the Kissapp company tool, Emoji;) Keyboard. The platform is one of the most complete, accessible and intuitive that you can find and has been recognized by users and critics as one of the best free emoji keyboards.

If you are looking for the funniest images you will want to have variety. Therefore, if you decide to use Emoji;) you will have more than 1500 figures at your disposal. Inside the catalog you will find traditional, 3D or animated emoticons. You can send them without inconvenience and directly by WhatsApp or email.

Among the advantages of Emoji;) you will have the chance to build your own word with emojis since you can create the letters you want. It also has 20 different categories, large emojis, a variety of fonts for texts and an app designed exclusively for messages. That is, if you prefer to use channels other than WhatsApp, you can send exclusive emojis. If you use social networks, we have good news. The keyboard developed by Kissapp allows you to share your favorite icons on Twitter, Facebook or Hangouts. Express everything you feel, where you want and how you want.

By downloading Emoji;) for free you can enhance your creative side. The app allows you to edit the icons to which you can add effects such as a change in the background color, text highlighted in bold, etc. You can also change the fonts between 38 different fonts. Among other options you can choose the categories of the emojis. You have tabs of most used, used lately, smiling faces, objects, animals, food, sports and more.

Emoji;) has another new feature that you will love to use. If you take a photo you can modify it and add the small images you want. Edit all your photographs and turn them into unique and original pieces. Just choose a site from the archive taken with your mobile camera and add the icon that you like the most.

We are facing an application that will make all your communications with family and friends unique, fun and original. In each talk you will be able to express with images what sometimes you cannot put with words. You can also transfer this to social networks without any problem. This is one of the few free emoji keyboards that offers so many possibilities. Not only to create and edit the icons, but also the opportunity to alter the fonts to be used in other applications. It is not only limited to use in WhatsApp but can be applied to any space on your mobile that uses text. Remember that when installing the program you must activate the keyboard in the settings section of your terminal.

This may sound complex but it is really a very simple step to follow. So don't worry that you will find yourself enjoying the best and funniest emoticons without realizing it.

Communication is one of the most important axes of our society today. All our relationships are connected through social networks, mobiles, computers or technological devices. Being able to communicate with images that express our feelings is something that gives warmth and fun that you should not miss.
