

Review War Thunder

Gaijin Entertainment

War Thunder is a war simulation game developed by the Russian studio Gaijin Entertainment. It can be downloaded free of charge on Playstation 4, Xbox One and computers. It offers in-game purchases and is about recreating wars through the use of vehicles. You can choose ships, planes or tanks

One of the most worked genres in the world of games and applications is war. The recreation of war scenarios is one of the products that the different studios of electronic games have developed the most over the years. In War Thunder we will find one of the most real and complete proposals of this type.

Download War Thunder is free. The company in charge of the title, the Russian Gaijin Entertainment, decided to move to what is known as a free to play model. That is, we can get the project for free and then if we want we will have the chance to get rewards, coins and game elements only if we want through integrated purchases.

We are facing one of the best alternatives for players who enjoy doing detailed work, research and dedication. Why? Because War Thunder is a simulation game of scenarios of war through vehicles. The transports that can be used are planes, ships or war tanks. The settings in which the epic battles take place are set between World War II and the Cold War. There are campaigns and missions based on real events and others created in a fictitious way but with the same historical bases.

The diversity of vehicles available is the great advantage of War Thunder. The title that can be obtained for PlayStation 4, Xbox One and computers has more than 1500 means of war transport, including tanks, helicopters, planes and various destroyer ships. Each of them recreates with great precision the characteristics of its original version. There are apparatus of different armies like the United States, Germany, the Soviet Union, the United Kingdom, Japan, China, Italy, France and Sweden. Furthermore, all content is updated regularly so you will never tire of discovering new vehicles. Depending on the style of game you prefer and the strategies you want to use, it will be the device you must choose.

The maps on which the vehicles are deployed are more than 80 and recreate historical scenes of the wars that happened in the 20th century. As we said, each transport method has unique qualities depending on its characteristics. In order to obtain each one of them, we must "investigate" through coins that are obtained by completing missions in the different game modes. Being a free game, as it usually happens, if we want to get the best cars, planes or boats without paying it will take a long time. However, if we take advantage of an offer to buy coins, we can get our favorite machine. War Thunder will allow us to play with military troops that have never been seen in the field of video games.

The game modes in the Gaijin Entertainment title are very varied. We will have the chance to face other users or against artificial intelligence in amazing missions. All games can be customized with rules that adapt to the style and desire of each person's games. There is arcade mode, realistic, historical campaigns, simulator and custom. We can choose if we want to fight the battle on land, sea or air.

For those players who want to be in the day to day of the large amount of content that War Thunder constantly adds, they have the possibility to download the War Thunder Assistant app. Available for Android and iOS operating systems, the platform allows you to keep in touch with your favorite game without any cost. You will receive all the events, news, news and changes that are applied in the game. War Thunder. With the mobile assistant you will have the possibility to consult all your statistics in real time for your user.

The graphic section of this war simulation game is another of its outstanding advantages. Every detail in the maps is taken care of as well as what refers to the music, soundtrack and effects that bring reality to the games. For more creative users, the title allows them to make original creations that they can then monetize. The Gaijin product community is very large and active.

War Thunder is one of the most prominent options for console and computer gamers. Its large amount of content will give you many hours of guaranteed fun and strategy.
